

LOCAL IN BRIEF.

Buggies, Buggies, at Mahard & Son. 27-1m

Hon. M. W. Hall was a visitor in the city Tuesday.

Abner Gore made a visit this week to friends at Slater.

Robert Collins, of Sweet Springs, visited Marshall Monday.

Dr. Mary Mansur made a professional visit to Slater this week.

Mrs. Louis Petrie, of Nelson, was shopping in Marshall Saturday.

Gaines Piper, son of Mortimer Piper is quite sick with typhoid fever.

Miss Viola Pifer, of the Wright Dry Goods House, is taking a vacation.

La Crosse Lumber Co.

Treat Customers Right.

Mrs. J. W. Goodwin, of Alma, spent Tuesday with Mrs. R. E. L. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Withers, of Fairville, were in shopping Monday.

All kinds of buggies at Mahard & Son's. 27-1m

H. B. Watts, of the Hardeman neighborhood, spent Saturday in the city.

C. L. Brown and wife left Tuesday for a short visit to relatives at Armstrong.

Rev. A. M. Lehr was the dinner guest Tuesday of M. C. Chaffee and family.

Mrs. Maggie Shaw returned this week from a visit to friends in Sweet Springs.

The only place to buy carpets, rugs, curtains etc., is at Collins Wall Paper Company. 27-1w

Mrs. W. B. Laurie is visiting her father, Joseph B. Smith, at Gilliam this week.

Roy Gill, son of Thomas Gill, left Saturday for a visit to relatives at St. Louis.

La Crosse Lumber Co.

Never Fail to Please.

Miss Jennie Koontz, of I. O. Striker's establishment, is taking a vacation this week.

Dr. D. F. Bell and wife spent Tuesday and Wednesday at their farm near Miami.

P. C. Armentrout and wife left Tuesday for Excelsior Springs for a short stay.

Miss Sallie Easley returned Monday from a visit to Dr. and Mrs. Honer at Alma.

Jenett Saunders stepped on a rusty nail last week, the results of which are a very sore foot.

Grant Fulkerson and M. C. Burnes, of Kansas City, visited Marshall friends Sunday.

Miss Grace Guy, of Memphis, Mo., is a visitor at the Northcraft home on West Arrow street.

Miss Fannie Taylor will leave this week for a visit to Mrs. Wm. Campbell at Kansas City.

Misses Lella and Velma Reed left Tuesday for Williamsburg, Kans., to spend several weeks.

Miss Loulou Tickemyer will leave this week for a visit to Miss Emma Denny at Armstrong.

Have you seen the new shipments of fancy rugs just received at the Collins Wall Paper Company? 27-1w

Miss Lucy Conway, of Kansas City, will arrive this week for a visit to her sister, Mrs. Roy Allison.

The School Board at their meeting Monday night decided to open school Monday, Sept. 9th, 1901.

J. T. Platner and son, of Grand Pass, left Saturday for a visit to relatives at Beardstown, Ill.

Mrs. C. B. Obbwin returned Tuesday from a three weeks' visit to her old home at Lexington, Mo.

Misses Rena and Nellie Hawkings, of Fairville, are guests this week of the Misses Hupp on Eastwood.

G. N. Hanson's carpet store is now located opposite the N. Y. Racket store. See his ad in this issue.

Dr. and Mrs. Will Sharp expect to attend the Sunday school encampment at Fertle Springs next Tuesday.

John L. Evans has sold out a half interest in his feed and sale stable to Ed Haynie. Success to the new firm.

Mrs. Bolton and son, Benjamin, arrived Wednesday from Texas for a visit to Rev. D. W. Bolton and family.

Miss Pearl Mitchell and Mrs. Dora Hall arrived Tuesday to attend the meeting of the Board of the F. M. I.

Cypress Finishing

La Crosse Lumber Co.

Miss Ruth Strong, of Kansas City, the guest of Mrs. Oscar Cochran, left Tuesday for a visit to friends at Slater.

Mrs. B. T. Wharton has been quite sick since Saturday at her home on North Odell, threatened with typhoid fever.

Miss Minnie King, compositor on this paper, is taking a vacation this week, visiting her sister at Malta Bend.

Miss Maud Corder and Henry Irving, of Alma, were guests this week of Charley Irving and family on Lafayette Ave.

A nice line of minced and pressed ham, and dressed beef, the finest things for picnic lunches at Campbell's Meat Market. 27-1m

Arthur Hupp and Judge Lee Tucker went to Saline City Tuesday to adjust a loss of four hundred dollars in the Farmers' Mutual.

Cecil Wilson left Wednesday for Chicago, where he goes in the interest of his firm that may possibly call him to New York before he returns.

La Crosse Lumber Co.

Make Low Prices.

W. R. Campbell & Co., are still in the race with the best of Kansas City beef and all kinds of fresh meats usually kept in a first-class meat market. 27-1m

Col. James Gordon says notwithstanding the rain he had the best Sabbath School Sunday he has ever had. More grown people were in attendance.

R. V. Montague returned Monday from a stay of several weeks at El Reno, his son T. H. Montague having drawn a claim on the El Reno district.

D. C. Hoffman and sons, Will and D. C. Jr., who are working on B. F. McClure's residence, near Houstonia, spent Sunday at their home in this city.

Maurice Van Anglen and wife returned Monday from an Eastern trip, and will for the present be with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Van Anglen at Malta Bend.

G. W. Crouch, who drove in from his home south of the city, for the first time in weeks, last Friday, has been very sick but is considered better at this writing.

The Collins Wall Paper Co. have some beautiful draperies on exhibition in their windows that are enough to fill with delight all persons with an eye for high art.

Miss Loulou Tickemyer, of the Shackelford neighborhood, visited Marshall friends this week. She tells us the Shackelford Fancy Work Club has adjourned until fall.

Mrs. Hal P. Headley and daughter, Miss Alma, who arrived this week for a visit to Mesdames Mary Price and Ellen Collins are boarding with Mrs. George Brunaugh on East North street.

Mesdames John Noritz, McLennon Matler and Rev. C. E. McKenna, of Malta Bend, were the committee who spent Friday in Marshall selecting a new carpet for the Presbyterian Church.

J. C. Thompson, who has been with M. K. Farmer since his arrival in our city from Boonville, has accepted a position with W. H. Fletcher, where he will be glad to meet all of his old customers.

Miss Clara Brown, who is maid of honor to the sponsor for the Veterans of Missouri left Thursday for Springfield, Mo. She will go from Springfield to Kansas for a two weeks' visit to relatives.

Thomas GMI, of the Marshall Book Store, left Tuesday for a business trip to Lexington, Kentucky, to be gone about six days. Miss Hickawill have charge of the store during the absence of Mr. Gill.

Mrs. Luella Cooper and daughter, Miss Lotta, of Malta Bend, were in Marshall Tuesday making their arrangements to move to this city in the near future; but as yet have not decided upon a house.

Prof. Grube, who sold last week one hundred tons of hay for eight dollars a ton, and finds it is selling this week for thirteen, no doubt, feels like kicking himself or having some one else do it for him. Such is life.

Miss Edith Clark, who for several years has been one of the most popular sales ladies of the New York Store, has accepted a position with George Brown's Dry Goods House. We congratulate the firm upon securing her.

Miss Dean Robertson, reporter for the Index, who has been visiting friends at Mexico for some days, was joined at that place Monday night by Miss Grogg, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. P. Hawkins. Both young ladies went on to Chicago where they will visit.

Mrs. George Lankford left Wednesday for Chicago, where she took the steamer, "Montauk" for Petoskey, Michigan. She will be joined by her father and brother, B. F. and Wilson S. Lankford, of Princes Anne, Md., and they will visit the former's sister, Mrs. John M. Shields, of Petoskey.

Mrs. John Bryant and daughter, Miss Louise, are both sick with the fever. Mr. Bryant left Wednesday for Kansas City, to secure a professional nurse. Neither one of the ladies are as yet considered seriously ill, and their many friends hope soon to hear of the fever being broken.

A letter from Dr. Bowen to Mrs. Gen. Lankford, of this city, says he and Miss Lillian will not leave St. Louis for St. Paul as early as they expected, as they are having quite a revival in the Break Memorial church of which Dr. S. F. Charles, the pastor, is absent. Dr. Bowen expects to remain in the city several weeks yet before going to St. Paul.

Mrs. John A. Cason has traded her residence, one mile southwest of the square, to Dr. J. S. McKee for his residence at Columbia. Mrs. Cason will ship her things this week to Columbia where they will reside. Dr. McKee will, we understand, reside on the place purchased. Mr. Cason and family will be much missed in the religious and social circles of Marshall and their removal will be a matter of general regret.

California Short Line.

The Union Pacific is positively the shortest, quickest and best line to San Francisco. All trains pass through Denver. See The Rockies, and visit Salt Lake en-route. Only line running Pullman Palace Dining Cars. Service a-la-carte pay only for what you order and at reasonable rates. Very low rates to California this summer. Two fast trains daily. Write for information to J. B. Frawley, Gen'l Agent, 1000 Main St., Kansas City, Mo.

They Are Eating Them Now.

Canned Peas, Corn, Beans, Tomatoes. Buy now all you need for the fall and winter by the case and save money. The only way.

27-1m

F. W. MILLS.

Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold.

Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure, no pay. Price 25 cents.

New Importations.

The most beautiful and unique designs in draperies ever shown in this market are to be found at the Collins Wall Paper Company. 27-1w

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.